Sqlgate For Oracle KeygenOverseas territories and crown dependencies Following the model of British Dependent Territories, these new United Kingdom Overseas Territories and Crown Dependencies became independent states following a change of the law, ending their "permanent second-class" status. In the United Kingdom, the Colonial Secretary has the power to administer, manage and assume direct responsibility for each dependent territory or Crown dependency, which comes under the general authority of the Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs. However, this power has not been used since 1858. All dependent territories and crown dependencies are now countries under international law, with their own governments and legislatures. Dependent territories and crown dependencies are not part of the United Kingdom, and are not treated as part of the United Kingdom for some purposes. Dependent territories The six dependent territories are Akrotiri and Dhekelia Bermuda British Indian Ocean Territory British Virgin Islands Turks and Caicos Islands United Kingdom Antarctic Territory Crown dependencies The remaining six Crown Dependencies are the Channel Islands the Isle of Man the Isle of Wight the Scilly Isles the Pitcairn Islands the Falkland Islands The Sovereign holds the title of "Governor of the Falkland Islands" and "Lieutenant-Governor of the Islands of the British Antarctic Territory", which are counted as part of the Falkland Islands. The six Crown dependencies are not autonomous and are not part of the UK. The Crown dependencies are not a part of the United Kingdom and do not receive a share of the UK's taxation revenue. These territories enjoy equal status with the UK in terms
