The drivers and gunner's hatches are large enough to be comfortable, and there's even a very good headlamp. The vehicle handles very well, has good stability and doesn't tip over easily. Overall, the tank looks and feels good and has a very intimidating appearance." "It's rare to see a tank with a 105mm cannon for this class, but there's more to the Stingray 2 than its cannon. The Light Tank is well-armored all around with very solid angles for protection. The left side of the hull and turret are arced for protection, with small slits for the driver's vision, and canards on top of the vehicle to give the unit better speed. The road wheels are also raised for improved traction and stability." "The primary gun is a very powerful 105 mm Smoothbore cannon. The Gunner's sight features zoom, which is activated by pressing a switch mounted on the vehicle's right side. Automatic fire suppression provides an extra measure of safety for both the driver and gunner. The crew is protected and comfortable with Crew rest positions for both, and the FMG radio is equipped with a very accurate laser rangefinder. "If your players encounter an enemy tank of the same size, they can engage and fire at the same time." "The engine is an eight-cylinder diesel, giving an output of 300 HP. Dustine got off the bus, took her bag out of the crisply folded hands of the smarminess-sortie-girl who'd just pulled her aside, and rolled her eyes. "What's wrong, Lusy? You don't like the haircut? Or the crisply folded hands?" "Neither." Lusy's eyes narrowed, startled. "We've gotten off to a bad start, haven't we? I promise I was friendly, and I'm not angry." "Andrea's allergic to your perfume. So you don't want to get too close to her." "Oh." Lusy sighed, then waved her hand at the street ahead. "I'm not getting that close to your friend, I'll have you know. I'm two meters in." "I'm not sure there is a two-meter safe zone in this neighborhood." "Yes, there is." Lusy waved her hand more briskly than desired. "You will get lost. And I'll be here to help you." "Um. Right. Thanks." "Would you like to take the direct route, or the slightly less direct?" "The slightly less direct." "Should I give you directions?"
