It's with that quick overview that we bring to you the latest update to our most recent video about the Mortal Kombat 9 Klassic outfits. The first one to be announced was Shang Tsung. Now the entire character lineup for this year's Classic Pack will be revealed. Along with that we get a look at the new outfits for the ninjas. Speaking of ninjas, Noob Saibot's Klassic Costume is next to be revealed. Lastly, another piece of news is the news that these are the very first costumes we are going to be getting for Mortal Kombat. Something like this has been in the works for quite some time. Since the Klassic costumes were added, we've been on the look for more ideas like this, and now it's time. They're coming this month, you heard it here first. This time we're going to take it back to the classics and give the ninjas a newer look. Along with that, the first free outfit was unveiled. It features Scorpion from Mortal Kombat 3 and Sub-Zero from Mortal Kombat 4. Fans will also be able to get their hands on a Cyber Sub-Zero outfit. We want to hear your feedback. The Classic Costume DLC is a free cosmetic DLC for Mortal Kombat 9, releasing it on July 20. It brings new alternate costumes for the ninjas, as well as the first free costumes, for Noob Saibot and Scorpion. The Classic Costume is free to all Mortal Kombat 9 players, and can be activated by visiting the Xbox Live Marketplace. There will also be seven Klassic costumes for Sub-Zero, Scorpion, Noob Saibot, Kenshi, Rain, Cyrax, and Taven, representing the eight Klassic games, released for free this year. The Klassic Cyber Sub-Zero Costume was announced by Ed Boon on his Twitter account; check it out below:

These Classic costumes, I will try to keep them spoiler free for those who want to discover them without the need of having any previous knowledge on the game. Before I start talking about each one, I would like to point out that even if you already own Classic characters, some of them have received Classic upgrades in the Mortal Kombat 11 DLC which is included in the main game. If you are a classic player and you are excited for Classic costumes for Scorpion and Sub-Zero, I am here to inform you that you will not be waiting for much longer. The next Classic skins for Scorpion and Sub-Zero will be free for all Mortal Kombat 11 players once they are available. Unfortunately, for now the Classic Scorpion and Classic Sub-Zero remains as exclusive characters to the DLC packs. To unlock Classic costumes you will have to get a code that will be given once you pre-order the new DLC character, Shang Tsung. The codes will be given to you via a code given to you on a digital pre-order disc (Nintendo's eShop) or via a code through the Mortal Kombat 11 Tournament Edition. If you want to pre-order Shang Tsung, he has three different bundles that contain different items such as a Classic CD Soundtrack, Classic Fightstick, or a Gem Game which will reward the players with Scorpion and Sub-Zero Classic costumes when they are released. Although the news has already been announced, there is a new DLC coming to Mortal Kombat 11 this week. On Tuesday, April 17, the latest Kostume Pack will be released to the public, giving Kitana, Jade and Skarlet new alternate outfits that will be added as a free update to all Mortal Kombat 11 players. The Kostume Pack will be available on Tuesday, April 17 for $4.99. 5ec8ef588b
